AGREEMENT ON COOPERATION

reached today between the

FEDERATION MEDICAL AID International

(further referred as FEMERAID International)

and the

LAZARUS UNION – Union Corps Saint Lazarus International

(further referred as CSLI)

The parties acknowledge and highly appreciate each other's past activities. In order to increase the efficiency and impact of their further activities they agree on cooperating in the future in all those good-service activities that are considered as basic goals by both organisations.

FEMERAID International is the administrative and executive structure to regroup, consolidate, promote, develop, co-ordinate, organise and execute all Humanitarian Services of Assistance and of Emergency Care Services, as well as Donations of all kinds of the Federation of Autonomous Pories of the Sovereign Order of Saint John of Jerusalem, Knights of Malta (KMFAP) throughout the World, for assisting the needy, with especial emphasis on ethnic minorities and low income groups.

CSLI is a completely voluntary relief organization, its members and officials do not receive any gifts or benefits from the association. The CSLI has the ideals of Saint Lazarus to his banner. As an organization it is autonomous and independent and not belong to any other associations. Since 1st January 2012 CSLI is an independent part of the United Grand Pories of the Hospitaller Order of Saint Lazarus of Jerusalem, feeling its aims and traditions.

AREAS OF COOPERATION:

- ❖ International relationships
- ❖ Implementation of joint charity programmes
- ❖ Humanitarian activities
- ❖ Rescue Work
- ❖ Emergency First Aid
- ❖ Education and training

The CSLI undertakes to:

- ❖ inform its members on the FEMERAID activities
- ❖ support the FEMERAID in building relationships in those countries where it is not represented and the CSLI has a good working contact network
- ❖ regularly inform on the FEMERAID activities and events on the CSLI Homepage and its regular and occasional newsletters/brochures

The FEMERAID undertakes to:

- ❖ offer moral support to the events organized by the CSLI
- ❖ offer the CSLI members a constant participation at the meetings of the International Club of Knights, which was established in 2007 by KMFAP
- ❖ regularly inform on the CSLI activities and events on the FEMERAID and KMFAP Homepage and its regular and occasional newsletters/brochures that are issued worldwide
- ❖ mobilise the rescue units when needed – upon request of the CSLI

The agreement was established for indefinite time and can be cancelled by the will of both parties.
