

The Knights of Malta of KMFAP Deutschland e.V. held their annual meeting in Heilbronn, Germany from 15th to 17th November 2024

The event brought together german Knights to enjoy each other's company and discuss upcoming charity projects for the year 2024/25.

Charity Projects Discussion

The primary focus of the meeting was to brainstorm and plan charity projects for the upcoming year. The knights discussed various initiatives aimed at supporting local communities, including a soup kitchen in Hannover, support of the children's hospice in Stuttgart, Child hospital in Hungary and a orphanage in Gambia. The collaborative spirit and dedication to philanthropy were evident throughout the discussions, with many knights volunteering to lead different projects.

Bullseye Ax Throwing Competition

In addition to the charity work, the knights participated in a bullseye ax throwing competition. This exciting side activity was held at a newly established facility in Heilbronn. The competition emphasized precision over speed, and knights of all ages enjoyed the friendly rivalry.

The event concluded with a sense of accomplishment and camaraderie, as the knights not only planned impactful charity projects but also bonded over a quality time weekend.
